

Lou Camerato is a resident of West Akron. Since his retirement from a 47 year career in accounting and finance, he has immersed himself in his first love—ART. His medium is assemblage/ found object art and collage. Each of his assemblages is rich in metaphoric imagery, revealing his inner conflicts and personal victories. Lou attended Hartford Art School at the University of Hartford and holds a bachelors' degree in accounting & finance from Central Connecticut State University. Throughout his artistic career, Lou has participated in various juried and non-juried exhibits and has won several awards. His work is often seen in many Northeast Ohio art shows.

Lou's work has been exhibited at the Canton Museum of Art, The Massillon Museum (Honorable Mention), Little Art Gallery in North Canton (3rd Place), Summit Art Space (Honorable Mention, 3rd Place), the Gallery at Lakeland Community College, Middle Earth Gallery in Cuyahoga Falls, Peninsula Art Academy, Akrona Gallery, Hazel Tree Gallery, and Peg's Gallery in Hudson. His work is featured in the inaugural issue of Assembla Magazine. He is a member of Akron Society of Artists, Artists of Rubber City, Summit Artspace, National Collage Society, Ohio Collage Society and Cuyahoga Valley Art Center. Lou is also a board member of Akron Society of Artists and Summit Art Space.
